

BURSARY APPLICATION

APPLICANTS FOR BURSARY AWARD NEED TO SUBMIT:

1. An application to the IASG Secretariat by email to iasgbursary@gmail.com.
2. An abstract by 31st May (last date for submission of abstract without late fee) to be submitted online at <http://abstract.iasgonline.com> along with a copy to iasgabstracts@gmail.com with the subject heading: 'Bursary for New Delhi 2019 conference'. Generally, candidates submitting case reports or videos for presentation would have the least chance of being awarded the bursary.

Information for Bursary applicants

1. Twenty-five (25) bursaries are offered to postgraduate students/research scholars (MD/MS/DNB/MCh/PhD) in GI Surgery and related specialties (Preference: GI Surgery) who submit an abstract at <http://abstract.iasgonline.com> and send a copy in this application form by 31st May. Preference will be given to sophomores rather than final year students and to IASG members.
2. Bursary awardees will be provided tickets from their place of work (by air or train as applicable) to the conference city and accommodation during the period of the conference, along with complimentary registration. They will be expected to be present throughout the duration of the conference.
3. The travel will be organized by the IASG Education Committee by the least expensive mode and dates and timings will be at the discretion of the IASG Education Committee. Requests for changes will not be ordinarily accepted.
4. In addition, subject to logistic considerations, a visit to one or two centres in the city where the Conference is being held will be organized. No exam format case discussions will be conducted. The program will have a mix of discussion/description of a technique, a case capsule to be run by local residents and bursary awardees, a session on a non-surgical topic, a paper critiquing session and a mentorship session.
5. Bursary awardees will have to deposit the early bird registration fee. This will be refunded at the end of the conference. Participation certificates will be given at the end of the conference
5. Awardees will be required to submit a report of their bursary before 30th October. This will have to be done online.

6. You do NOT need to submit a separate application for the PG Clinics. All those who apply for the bursary will automatically be considered for the PG Clinics.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMITTING ABSTRACTS:

PLEASE SUBMIT ABSTRACTS ONLINE AT <http://abstract.iasgonline.com> along with a copy to iasgabstracts@gmail.com with the subject heading: 'Bursary for New Delhi 2019 conference'.

- A title (in capital letters) that clearly indicates the nature of the investigation needs to be provided.
- Abbreviations should be avoided in titles but may be used in the text if they are defined at first usage.
- The authors' names (full first names, family names) and places of work (institution, city, country) must be shown, but omit degrees, titles, appointments, postal address and acknowledgement of support.
- The abstract should be as informative as possible. The abstract should be structured with background/aim or objective/patients and methods/results/conclusion.
 - State the specific objective of the study
 - State the methods used, if pertinent
 - Summarize the results obtained
 - State the conclusions reached
- Please ensure that your abstract does not contain spelling, grammatical or scientific errors, as it will be reproduced as submitted in a Supplement of Tropical Gastroenterology.
- Statements such as "data will be presented" or similar will lead to automatic rejection of the abstract.

The last date for submission of abstracts for Bursary award is 31st May.
